

DAVID B. LUSSIER

NICET® SET Level IV, ASSOCIATE

David Lussier joined Altieri in 1992 after eleven years as a contractor designing fire protection and fire detection systems. As Altieri's Chief Fire Protection Engineer, David leads Altieri's fire protection team and is responsible for the fire protection systems designs of all Altieri projects.

David is highly skilled at producing innovative and cost-effective solutions for complex spaces and spaces requiring special protection requirements. He works closely with architects and others in the effective coordination and implementation of all fire protection systems.

David manages all fire codes and standards for the firm. To ensure that Altieri stays ahead of the curve, he holds memberships in the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), National and American Fire Sprinkler Associations (N/AFSA), New England Association of Fire Protection System Designers (NEAFPSD), and the International Code Council (ICC). He is also one of the coordinators of Altieri's Intern Program.

David and his wife are avid dog lovers and are certified Puppy Raisers for Guiding Eyes for the Blind.
